

Accreditation Managers Conference

OCTOBER 25 & 26, 2022

About Us

The New Jersey Public Safety Accreditation Coalition is a nonprofit organization that, for more than 20 years, has helped hundreds of law enforcement organizations in New Jersey and beyond, to achieve and maintain accreditation with the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) and New Jersey Law Enforcement Accreditation Programs (NJLEAP). The Coalition is New Jersey's only independent accreditation institution not affiliated or associated with any credentialing commission. We independently and confidentially serve the needs of public safety organizations and their chief executive officers who are seeking accreditation as a means to pursue professional excellence.

We support and encourage agencies and personnel to meet international performance standards through various accreditation programs and the work of many credentialing commissions, including:

- Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies

- New Jersey Law Enforcement Accreditation Program

- International Association of Campus Law Enforcement

- New York State Law Enforcement Accreditation Program

- IADLEST Training Accreditation

- Commission on Accreditation for Corrections

- Commission on Correctional Health Care

- Commission on Fire Accreditation International

- Commission on Accreditation of Ambulance Services

- Commission on Emergency Management Accreditation

When you attend our conference, we will help you apply the “theory” of any training to the practical, real-world work you will do as an accreditation manager. Our conference classes are both designed and taught by seasoned accreditation managers/assessors specifically, to meet your needs; in policy writing, proving compliance, facility inspection, PowerDMS and Standards, successfully navigating your “official” onsite assessment, and much more.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Don Mann's awe inspiring and highly accredited presentations stem from his colorful and action-packed life as a member of SEAL Team SIX, as a former internationally renowned endurance athlete, as a leader in the world of extreme adventure-sports and as a New York Times Best-Selling Author.

Mann is a very passionate speaker and author who has changed countless lives by sharing his unique "Reaching Beyond Boundaries" philosophy. He has been driven for decades in helping others achieve greater goals.

Don's presentation is relevant and always very well received by those in the corporate, financial, medical, educational, athletic and military communities. He shares insights into his personal philosophy while offering his audiences examples on how to reach beyond their own self-perceived limitations to achieve greater professional success.

Don's message includes equal doses of inspiration, strategy and entertainment. As he likes to say, "Anybody with the proper mindset can achieve anything imaginable."

Mann is often a guest on TV, radio and blog sites discussing current events, military issues etc. He was nominated by the Veterans Business Battle as the 2016 Entrepreneur of the Year. He has also written 21 books including the New York Times bestseller Inside SEAL Team SIX: My Life and Missions with America's Elite Warriors.

Don attempted to summit Mount Everest in 2016, paddled 750 miles across Canada in 2017, and recently hosted and directed Surviving Mann, a reality TV show where he along with MMA legend Randy Couture and the infamous Sherriff Lamb, produced very challenging courses involving intense physical training, long gun, pistol and shot gun shooting, land navigation, ropes courses and mission planning. The shows conclude with the members conducting a mission. He also has over 40 years (1,000 competitions) worth of competitive racing experience, and was once ranked 38th in the world as a triathlete.

Mann received a Master's in Management from Troy State University, in Troy, AL, a B.S. in International Relations & Criminal Justice, from Florida State University, in Tallahassee, FL, and a B.S. in Liberal Science, from State University of New York. He lives in the Blue Ridge Mountains in VA.

PowerDMS One-On-One User Guidance

Description: The old way of creating and maintaining paper-based accreditation files is quickly on its way out. The new and more time-efficient method, using PowerDMS Standards, an online accreditation management tool, is the way of the future. PowerDMS Standards allows accreditation managers to effectively manage policies, proofs, and most significant changes to the program and files. Using PowerDMS Standards creatively makes accreditation managers more effective in communicating compliance utilizing an assortment of techniques not available the old way.

DMS will have representative, Don Philippi on hand during the 2nd day of the conference that will introduce accreditation practitioners to these techniques, and the PowerDMS team will be available in a dedicated private room.
